

The Bell companies already dominate the LEC business. If the FCC lifts the dominant classification from the Local Exchange Carriers (Bells), not foster new investment, innovation or competition. The FCC should foster, not squash diversity in the marketplace.